

Perspective

Top View

Components

Create a tower out of boxes by moving them multiple times along the Z axis and rotating the boxes around their center point (to get center point use "Volume" component). To create a box use "Box (Box 2PT)" component. Use "Random" component to generate rotation angle values. This exercise is based on the swissRe Tower exercise that we did during our last session.