

AVENUES IN THE TROPICS

URBAN SCENARIOS FOR THE CARRERA 50
BARRANQUILLA, COLOMBIA

TRANSDISCIPLINARY SUMMER SCHOOL 25 JUNE - 11 JULY 2014

PROF. ALFREDO BRILLEMBOURG & PROF. HUBERT KLUMPNER, D-ARCH
DR. PIUS KRUEHLI, TRANSDISCIPLINARITY LAB D-USYS
PROF. DR. ARNO SCHLUETER, D-ARCH
PROF. DR. GERHARD SCHMITT, D-ARCH
PROF. FABIAN AMAYA, UNIVERSIDAD DEL NORTE, BARRANQUILLA

This summer team up with ETH students from architecture, engineering and environmental sciences, join forces with Colombian students from Universidad del Norte, develop sustainable scenarios for the avenue Carrera 50 in Barranquilla and influence real decision makers.

This program is part of a three-year ambitious collaboration with the Inter-American Development Bank's Emerging and Sustainable Cities Initiative and the Swiss Ministry for Economic Cooperation.

D-ARCH, B-BAUG, D-USYS Masters Students
Apply before 10th May - 4 ECTS

Kick-off in Zurich: 25th - 27th June
Work-lab in Barranquilla: 30th June - 11th July

300 CHF Fee including accommodation in Colombia
Participants are responsible for travel to Barranquilla.
Travel grants available

For more information: u-tt.arch.ethz.ch

